Where are the jobs now?

5 Fast Facts

1) Employment in Australia

1) Go to jobsandskills.gov.au click Data tap in the top menu.
2) Click on jobs and Skills Atlas and select a region.
3) You can selcet Australia or the state you are in. Click Go.
4) Look for Total Employment & Full-time ratio, Unemployment rate & Participation rate (15-24)

2) Industries with the most workers

1) Go to jobsandskills.gov.au click Data in the top menu, then select Occupations and Industry Profiles.
2) Click Industries and search for Industries with the highest Workforce Share (%)
3) Write down the Top 5 Industries.

3) Top jobs in the top growth industries

1) Go to vic.gov.au/skills-victorias-growing-industries
2) Scroll down and click on an industry of interest to explore the top jobs.
3) Scroll down and click on Featured jobs.
4) Here you will find a list of top jobs in the selected industry.
5) You can explore Vocational Education and Training (VET) courses and pathways available.

4) Industries with the highest number of young people employed

1) Go to jobsandskills.gov.au click on Data in the top menu, then select Occupation and Industry Profiles.
2) Click Explore by Occupation or by Industry
3) Select the occupation or industry you are interested in and look for Median Age or
4) Click on Details, scroll down and look at Age and gender.

5) Education pathways into employment

- Certificate courses (TAFE and private providers deliver a wide variety of certificate I - IV courses).
- Traineeships (TAFE and private providers deliver a wide variety of 1 year traineeships with on the job training, for a wide variety of industries including animal care, business, child care and health).
- Apprenticeships (TAFE and private providers deliver a wide variety of 3-4 year apprenticeships involving on the job training, for many trades including automotive, building, hospitality and plumbing).
- Diploma (TAFE and private providers deliver a wide variety of courses that usually require 2 years of full time study, with courses on line or based within a training college).
- Degree & Post Graduate (Universities deliver a wide variety of courses that usually require 1-4 years of full time study, with courses on line or based within a university).

CEAV Career Counselling Austrtalia (CCCA) www.ccca.edu.au a subsidary of Australian Centre for Career Education (ACCE) www.acce.org.au © 2025